Dear Parent/Carer

Parent Support Meeting: Tuesday 13th October, 2015
Venue: South Cheshire College Theatre Space
Time: Year 11 5.45 arrival 6.00pm – 7.00pm / Year 10 6.45 arrival 7.00pm – 8.00pm

I am delighted to be inviting you to a Parent Support Meeting on 13th October. This meeting, which will last no longer than one hour (including refreshments), will focus on how we will be working together to support your son/daughter in this important year of school.

There will be a presentation by Mrs Whitefoot (Year 10 Achievement Manager)/and or Mrs Roebuck (Year 11 Achievement Manager) giving you critical information about exams, assessments and strategies for supporting at home. Miss Szymura will also talk to parents about the important changes to exam grading and assessment. These aspects are crucial this year, and will affect your son/daughter's sixth form choices so it is really important that parents attend.

Following the presentation, which will be around 30 minutes, parents will be served mocktails and canapés, and there will be a chance for you to meet other parents, meet staff and, if you wish, look around South Cheshire College. Mike Finney, who deals with South Cheshire College admissions, will be present on the evening, and so there will be an opportunity to discuss college applications if you wish.

For those parents who have children in Years 10 and 11, you will notice that there are two presentations. The presentations will be different and so parents are welcome to stay for both, or to attend one or the other.

As this is such an important event, we are asking that every child is represented. Please, complete and return the reply slip by Friday 2nd October so that we can cater for numbers.

We look forward to meeting you on the evening.

Yours sincerely

E. S. Brett
